A final note...

Note: There are several ways to reach our industry and just like your health, utilizing all marketing channels is critical. A favorite for sponsors has been space advertising in the dozen monthly publications in our industry. As you know, a full-page advertisement can run $1,000-$3,500 per month per magazine, and should be part of all marketing efforts. Consider this...

Our PREMIER PLUS program is meant to work for you and your company, 365 days a year. There is no better value for the marketing dollar. As we add to this program during the year, you'll see more benefits and more clients to help you reach your goals

*There are small rental charges on the mailing and emailing lists, which are paid directly to our marketing vendors. Ask about your FREE mail and email usage with Sponsorship.
